1985 MEAT AND DAIRY IMPORTS

1985 MEAT IMPORTS

Meat imports under the United States Meat Import Law for 1985 reached about 1.3 billion pounds. During November and December of 1984, meat imports amounted to about 85 and 98 million pounds respectively. For 1985, November and December quantities amounted to about 170 and 157 million pounds respectively and helped push total 1985 imports about 170 million pounds over the 1984 level.

1985 DAIRY IMPORTS DECLINE

U.S. imports of cheese subject to licensing declined about 2 percent when compared with 1984. Most categories registered small decreases in volume except for Processed Edam and Gouda which fell 6 percent from year ago levels. Most of the decline in this category was the result of reduced shipments from the EEC.

Offsetting these declines were small volume increases for American-type other than Cheddar and the Italian-type categories. Total license use as a percentage of the quota for all cheese categories declined slightly from 98 percent usage a year ago.

A downward trend was noted in the unit prices for most imported cheese categories, the exception being the Italian-type categories which were in short supply during the early part of 1985. Country of origin adjustments were made for Argentine Swiss-Emmenthal and Other Cheese, N.S.P.F. and Swiss-Emmenthal type cheese from Israel due to non-availability of these products for export in the producing countries. Increased competition from larger available domestic supplies at lower prices and increased promotion of domestically produced cheeses coupled with the continued strength of the American dollar overseas, exerted downward pressure on the price for imported dairy products. These factors will probably continue to favor domestically produced dairy products during 1986.

Dairy products under license, other than cheese fell 4 percent from year ago levels due to lower imports of dried skimmed milk.

Imports of dairy products subject to unlicensed quota generally maintained year ago levels. However, increases were noted for imported chocolate and animal feeds derived from milk. Quotas were filled or nearly filled for butter substitutes, aged cheddar from Canada and articles containing at least 5.5 but not over 45 percent butterfat by weight.
